

We will get you home

Flights from Johannesburg

Dear Sirs

We are truly grateful for all your assistance and support during the recent repatriation flights from Johannesburg.

We realize at this time situations can be extremely difficult, especially with the limitations of movement currently in place however we remain committed to returning passengers to their home countries and will go the extra mile to get them there safely. We continue to operate to more than 65 destinations* around the world and are here to give our passengers the best travel solutions.

We would like to update you on the additional flights available from Johannesburg to select destinations via Doha:
